Newtonbrook Northmen keep grip on North York mat championship

By DAVID GROSSMAN

A spectator in a crowded gym, watching an exciting wrestling final, can have a lot of fun unless that person was entered in the meet and could not compete.

Robert Ceci, a 19-year-old grade 12 student at Westview Centennial Secondary School, had that feeling watching the North York wrestling finals at Westview Saturday afternoon.

Bob watched as Newtonbrook Northmen won their fourth consecutive North York championship with 104 points, edging Westview who scored 98. Bathurst's 70 points, Downsview's 49 and Boylen's 44 rounded out the top five of the 14 schools entering.

Bob is Ontario novice 1970 champion and two-time North York defending champ in the 194-pound category, as well as being undefeated in 11 meets this season.

A month ago Bob began working out two hours every night lifting weights in preparing to defend his title.

He worked so hard that he found himself in Northwestern General Hospital two weeks prior to the final with a strained and infected kidney. He was released the day before the finals.

"You don't know what it's like sitting out here watching your team lose, when you know you could have helped them win," said Bob. "I guess I just worked too hard."

The five-foot nine-inch student immigrated from Italy in 1965 and was an offensive tackle on Westview's semi-finalist senior football team. He will have to wait three months before he can start training again.

"I am thinking of becoming a professional wrestler when I'm through school."

North York wrestling convenor and coach of Westview, Dave Garland, was extremely pleased with his team's showing but regretted the opening left by the absence of Ceci.

Newtonbrook, Westview and Bathurst each won three bouts in the 14-bout competition.

Victoria Park, Mackenzie, Downsview, Boylen and Earl Haig were the other winners.

It was Newtonbrook's first athletic championship this year but coach Ron Wilson did not think his team would win.

"I thought it would be close between Westview and Bathurst, but I had confidence my guys would make a strong showing."

Newtonbrook was without 115-pounder Fred Gartner who underwent a knee operation early in the schedule and Greg Cole who quit school.

Newcomers hit stride

By ALLAN RYAN

The newest additions to North York "A" and "B" high school football divisions combated yesterday afternoon's booming winds to secure first-ever victories in their respective groupings.

Westview Centennial Wildcats, promoted from "B" division this year largely on the basis of perfect 5-0 seasons for both junior and senior units in 1970, mounted their first win in three cracks at the borough heavens—a 9-0 defensive struggle over last year's finalists, York Mills Titans.

Meanwhile, A. Y. Jackson, a two-year-old school with its first senior team, balanced its record at 1-1, using a 25-yard single by John Henderson with three minutes to play to nudge Henry Lions, 14-13.

Westview coach Dave Garland, "not counting on too much" in Wildcats' first upper-tier season, now, after knocking on wood, admits to the possibility of a third-place finish.

"I certainly couldn't have predicted this before the season started," Garland said. "Now I think the team is just starting to play the kind of ball it had the ability for, but perhaps not the knowledge."

Titans, posting 16-0 and 35-0 routs in their first outings, failed to advance beyond the Wildcat 45, which underlines Westview's forte—a stingy defence.

Westview, quarterbacked by defensive halfback Bob Simson while first-stringer Gary Greenwell nursed bruised ribs, collected the lone touchdown when George Zajiczek scooted 25 yards after gathering up a bobbled punt. Nino Perricone's 25-yard field goal completed the scoring.

Wildcats' two remaining games are against Downsview and Newtonbrook (both 0-2 before they meet today at Newtonbrook) while York Mills, the team Westview hopes to catch for third, must confront defending champion Victoria Park and Earl Haig.

Victoria and Haig stand at 2-0 and each is responsible for one of Wildcats' losses. They'll clash Friday.

Jackson, which fielded only a junior exhibition team last year and has yet to get around to selecting a team nickname, got touchdowns from Ernie Brown and Dave Clarke, the latter recovering and scoring with a Henry fumble.

Notes: New Toronto Trojans clinched a quarter final berth in Etobicoke yesterday, dropping Mimico Marauders (0-3) for their third win in as many tries. . . . Scott Sayers (no relation to fellow running back Gayle of the Chicago Bears) plunged for two TDs and added two singles as Martingrove Brown Bears (2-1) stepped into second place in Etobicoke North Central with a 16-0 trimming of Richview Saints (1-2).

Kipling Wildcats claim first in the North Central at 3-0 following a 23-0 count over Scarlett Heights in a replay of last season's Etobicoke final. . . . Scarlett, in sad shape at 0-3, had powdered Kipling for the championship, 34-0.

In the Catholic Conference, Jim Boyle scored three majors, one on a 105-yard burst from scrimmage, and added three converts as Brebeuf Bulls, claimed their first win in three starts by pounding Chaminade (0-3), 51-7. . . . De La Salle went 3-0 by downing Neil McNeil, 21-8.
